RISK IS ACCELERATING.
YOUR MISSION CAN'T WAIT.

Threats are becoming more diverse, interconnected, and harder to anticipate... creating a vastly more complex and dangerous security environment. (ODNI, ATA 2025)

Adversaries don't hesitate, and neither do we. From AI security risks to data overload, from unstructured information environments to inbound velocity of cybersecurity threats, we act with urgency and precision. Through our Cloud and Data Engineering, AI/ML, and C-UAS solutions, we protect the nation's most important assets—our people—by developing and deploying national security solutions for the intelligence, diplomatic, military, and homeland communities.

This is where Edgesource delivers—creating mission impact without compromise.
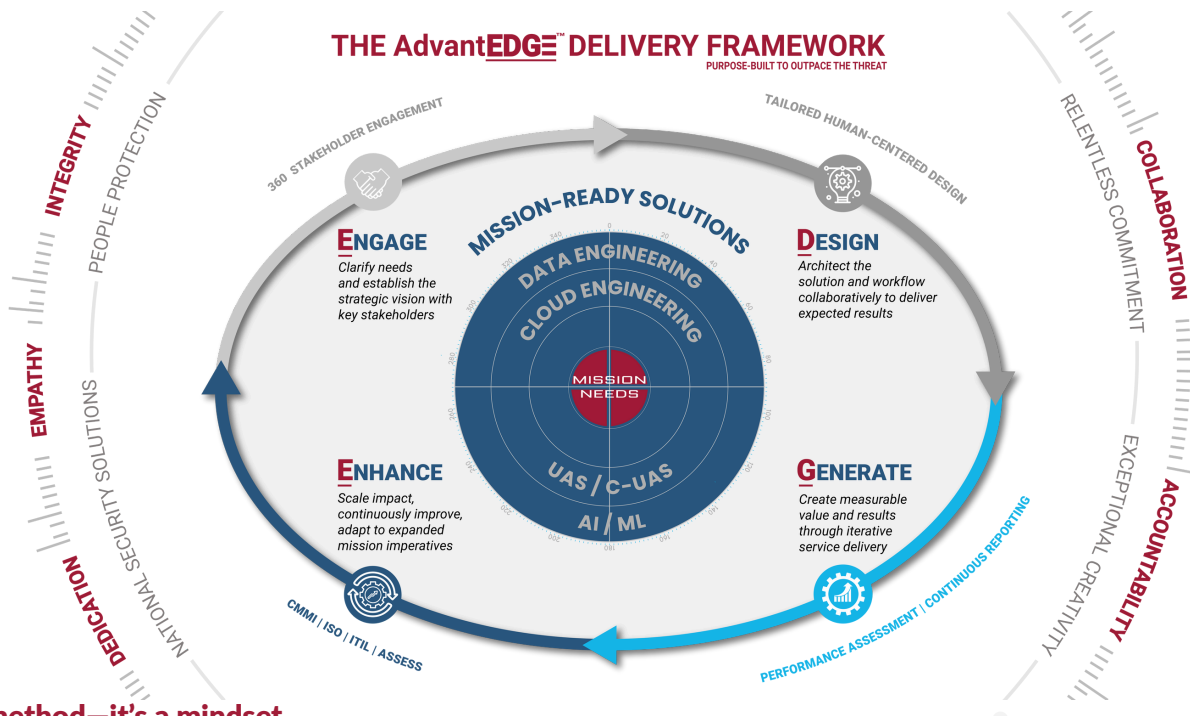

MISSION EMBEDDED. AdvantEDGE™ DELIVERED.

Edgesource doesn't observe the mission from afar—we advance it from within.

CULTURE IS OUR MULTIPLIER.

MISSION IMPACT CASE STUDY:

In a zero-fail, cloud-forward engagement with national security implications, Edgesource pioneered a secure, cloud-based CI/CD pipeline using Kubernetes and RMF-aligned agile methods in under one year.

We proved that fast, repeatable results with built-in transparency, CI/CD acceleration, and stakeholder trust outperform waterfall approaches without compromising security.

YOUR RAPID-START PARTNER: CLEARED. TRUSTED. READY.

In every engagement, our reputation consistently reverberates throughout the hallway as the go-to problem solvers.

Our clients trust us to deliver:

- Accelerated timelines and minimized downtimes with 'develop low/push high'.
- Improved end-user targeted decision-making under live threat.
- Observability and resilience in contested environments.

"Transparency is key...we expose everything throughout the process, including justification for every decision. We don't hoard info; we're team players who are cost-conscious, speed-driven, and mission-first. That's how we've earned stakeholder trust and delivered rapid ATO."*

— Edgesource Program Manager, Classified Engagement

See how speed, security, and transparency came together in one of our most complex engagements.

"Supporting our people and clients isn't just what we do— it's what we do best.
At Edgesource, we lead with integrity, empower our people and clients, and foster a culture of collaboration. We are committed to providing the resources, support, and guidance necessary to drive mission impact."*

— Edgesource President & CEO, J. Christopher Lansburgh

"By enabling our teams to move swiftly and focus on solutions— not red tape—we cultivate an environment where excellence thrives."

— Edgesource COO, Tracey King
